serving Sacramento and El Dorado Counties

Our mission: To bring peace and dignity through life's transitions by providing comfort, care, and support to people in need.

Snowline strives to meet the needs of individuals, schools, businesses, organizations, and communities experiencing an impactful loss.

Snowline provides a unique array of free resources to individuals and communities we serve:

One-to-one grief counseling to Snowline families and caregivers

- in our offices, in client homes, or in a HIPAA-appropriate alternative setting
- via phone, locally and outside our typical service areas
- via virtual requests based on personal needs

Ongoing Group resources – in person and virtually-- covering:

General Loss

LGBTQ+

Loss of Spouse

Loss of Parent

Children and Teen Loss

*Healthcare Professionals

* The newest group focuses on Healthcare Professionals with disenfranchised grief. "Healthcare Professionals" include resident aides or nurses in a facility, physician, social workers, chaplains, IHSS workers, administrators, or even janitorial staff working within a healthcare system. To provide neutral territory for people in the helping profession to get needed help without making themselves vulnerable in their workplace. Currently, we have a pilot program in El Dorado County with the possibility of future programs in Sacramento County.
